DeSibour-Reyburn Trophy - Donated in 1914 by J.H. DeSibour and W.S. Reyburn of the Chevy Chase Club at the founding of the DC Golf Association, the magnificent sterling silver cup survives as the permanent trophy of the championship. Mr. DeSibour was the architect of the original Chevy Chase Club clubhouse and Mr. Reyburn was the 1915 District of Columbia Amateur Champion. The District of Columbia Golf Association was reorganized in 1983 as the Washington Metropolitan Golf Association. The trophy is housed at the Columbia CC.
