Denny McCarthy to Sponsor Middle Atlantic Golf Association and Washington Metropolitan Golf Association Teams

BALTIMORE – Today, the Middle Atlantic Golf Association (MAGA) and the Washington Metropolitan Golf Association (WMGA) announced that PGA Tour Player Denny McCarthy, currently ranked 80th in the World, will serve as a sponsor for the Williamson Cup and Mason Dixon teams for the next three years.

“The Associations are very thankful for Denny’s generosity and his support of these team championships.” said Moose Brown, Executive Director, Middle Atlantic Golf Association and Washington Metropolitan Golf Association.

“I grew up playing in all the WMGA junior events and playing the Middle Atlantic Amateur each fall. These local and regional events helped me shape my game and prepare to play on the National Stage. They also provided the reward of making teams such as the Williamson Cup Team and the Mason Dixon Team,” said Denny McCarthy. “These events allowed me to travel and test my game against players up and down the East Coast while enjoying the great camaraderie of my fellow Maryland teammates. I hope this money can make these events as special for the current players as it was for me.”

BACKGROUND:

Denny McCarthy currently plays on the PGA Tour and is ranked 80th in the world—his highest ranking was 77th in August 2022. He joined the PGA Tour in 2018, having been a part of the Korn Ferry Tour since 2016, and has amassed one 3rd place finish and 16 top-10 finishes. During the 2022 season, Denny finished T7 at the U.S. Open, marking his first career top-10 in a major championship. Denny was also named to two national teams—the 2015 Walker Cup and the 2014 Eisenhower Trophy.

A native of Rockville, Maryland, Denny attended Georgetown Prep outside Washington, DC, and graduated from The University of Virginia in 2015. He currently resides in Jupiter, Florida. Denny’s full biography can be found here.
