

Bob Riley Junior Open

The JUNIOR OPEN is the second oldest Junior Golf Tournament in America. Formerly known as the DC JUNIOR it was started in 1922. This event was changed in 1983 from limited registration to an "open" competition. Any golfer 18 and under can compete in our three Divisions---16-17-18, 14-15, and 13 and under. The overall low score from either the 14-15 or 16-17 bracket is the Champion. In 2004, the tournament was changed to the ROBERT B. RILEY, III to recognize his dedication and service to Junior Golf and the Washington Metropolitan Golf Association.
