DeSibour-Reyburn Trophy - Donated in 1914 by J.H. DeSibour and W.S. Reyburn of the Chevy Chase Club at the founding of the DC Golf Association, the magnificent sterling silver cup survives as the permanent trophy of the championship. Mr. DeSibour was the architect of the original Chevy Chase Club clubhouse and Mr. Reyburn was the 1915 District of Columbia Amateur Champion. The District of Columbia Golf Association was reorganized in 1983 as the Washington Metropolitan Golf Association. The trophy is housed at the Columbia CC.

1914 Stroke Play - - 1915 Match Play - - 1916 & 1919 Stroke Play - - 1920 Match Play - - 1921-32 Stroke Play - - 1933 - Present Stroke Play to Match Play

Notes

1990 – heavy rains and delays required an adjustment where only 8 players advanced to match play – top 32 qualifiers played a second round to determine final 8

2018 – final reduced to 18 holes due to extensive weather delays in early rounds.

2020 - two days of stroke play in the late fall due to Covid-19 pandemic -Carlo Pizzano won play-off
